Chief, why…

Required: 2 scouts

Scouts walk onto the stage and start talking.

Scout: O chief, why did you name my younger sister Running Deer?

Chief: Because on the day she was born I saw a running deer.

Scout: Chief, why did you name my younger brother Swimming Beaver?

Chief: Because on the day he was born I saw a swimming beaver.

Scout: Well then, chief why did you name my older sister Flying Eagle?

Chief: Because on the day she was born I saw a flying eagle, why do you ask so many questions Bear Throwing Up?
